Churches Together – Carnival Stall
This year's carnival is on Saturday 20th of June. As in previous years, we are joining with our Methodist friends to run a 'Water & Wine' stall. There will also be a marble game and 'Pluck the Duck'.
We are looking for volunteers to help out in one or two hour slots between 12 noon and 5.00 pm. This is a great outreach opportunity. Please speak to Kim if you are willing to help.

For the world...

Heavenly Father,
we lift up the world before you today. So many places are filled with pain, conflict, and uncertainty, but we trust that you are still in control. Let your peace reach every nation, your healing touch every broken life, and your truth shine in places of darkness. Strengthen leaders with wisdom, comfort those who are suffering, and provide for those in need. Draw hearts back to you and restore what has been lost. Let your mercy cover the earth and your love bring unity among people. We place the world in your hands, trusting you to move in power.
In Jesus' name,

Amen
